The city of Naples has been nationally recognized as a leader in developing a successful health care plan. Designers and administrators of this plan will walk attendees through their process from collective bargaining to implementation results. The focus of their program is to reduce health care costs and improve employee wellness. This is a must program for cities and counties struggling with the challenge of controlling the cost of healthcare. With the uncertainties at the federal level and the volatility of the markets relative to this importance benefit, this is a wonderful opportunity for local government officials, and their key staff associated with healthcare, to come together and discuss options/solutions that may work best for their agency.

SPEAKERS:

- Denise Matson, HR Director, City of Naples
- Lori McCullers, Risk Manager, City of Naples
- Roger Reinke, Assistant City Manager, City of Naples
- Anna Maria Studley, Director, Client Development, Gehring Group

The cost for the training is $74 per person and $40 for students if you pay by check. Those who register and pay online will receive $25 off the registration fee ($49 per person/$15 per student). Lunch is included. The deadline for registration is Friday, September 15th. No refunds will be given after the deadline.

If paying by check, complete the registration form and mail to: FCCMA, P.O. Box 1757, Tallahassee, FL 32302.
