A Salute to the Center

The Center for Florida Local Government Excellence will present A Salute to the Center, hosted by FCCMA, at the Annual Conference on May 22 from 7:45 p.m. - 9:00 p.m. at the Hilton Orlando.

Come out and support your center by attending the "Poor Man's Supper." All money raised will go to support the Center's activities. The cost to attend is $50. You do not need to attend the whole conference to come to the dinner. You can register at: <http://fccma-members.flcities.com/Core/Events/eventdetails.aspx?iKey=FCCMACFLGE&TemplateType=A>. April New Members

The following membership applications have been received. If no current member comes forth with a reason why these applicants should not be approved as members, he/she will be invoiced for dues. Lori S. Bonino, District IV, Assistant Town Manager, Town of Jupiter, Full Member; \(Read more\)

Resume Review and Financial Appointments at the FCCMA Conference

Resume Review: Are you curious to know if your resume has what it takes to get an interview? Colin Baenziger, Baenziger and Associates; Renee Narlock, Bob Murray and Associates; and Jim Mercer, Mercer Group, professional recruiters, have offered their time at conference to meet one-on-one with attendees, by appointment. They will review your resume and offer helpful ways you may improve it based on what councils are requiring in this day and time. Renee and Jim will have appointment hours Thursday, May 23, from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm and Colin will have appointments on Friday, May 24, from 9:00 am - 5:00 pm. To request an appointment, please email Lynn Lovallo at llovallo@flcities.com. \(Read more\)

"Mentoring-Mentor/Protege Roles" Webinar Tomorrow

Mentors are essential in every profession, but even more so in local government. The relationship between mentor and protégé can take on many different forms and can bridge decades. Both the mentor and protégé skill sets are beneficial in professional development, as it takes a special individual to listen attentively and provide constructive advice. This panel will discuss strategies to be an effective mentor, yet also elaborate on the role of the protégé. Special focus will be paid to the correlation between relationship building and professional development. (Read more)

FCCMA Committees

Do you want to become more involved and be part of the decision-making? Then sign up today and be a part of a FCCMA committee. The committee descriptions and sign-up forms are located on the website. Go to: <http://fccma.org/member-committees/> for a list of the Program Year 2013/2014 committees. (Read more)

CityStats 2013

The FLC Center for Municipal Research and Innovation is currently collecting the 2013 CityStats Survey. Every municipality's participation is vital to producing accurate data. Without updated information from every city and town in Florida, the League is unable to provide helpful resources and research to elected officials and city staff throughout the year.
