First Onsite Training Session for 2014

FCCMA is pleased to announce that ICMA's Director of Ethics and Advocacy, Martha Perego, has agreed to facilitate a discussion on today's application of the ICMA Code of Ethics. Much has been debated about how best to apply certain ethical provisions to a manager's daily life. Martha Perego is the noted expert on this topic given her daily engagement with managers from around the country who are challenged with questions on this topic. FCCMA members from around the state are encouraged to attend this important and certain to be engaging and informative session. (Read more)

So You Want to be a City or County Manager: The Path to Success Webinar

Each year, FCCMA holds a full-day "So You Want to Be Session" as part of their annual conference. This webinar is a condensed version of this very beneficial program with a focus on how young professionals and students can prepare themselves to progress in the local government profession. Two relatively young professionals in Florida (both with senior level positions in local government) will serve as panelists for this sure to be insightful webinar session. Jonathan Evans, Haines City City Manager and Brad Johnson, Lakeland Assistant City Manager will share their stories and discuss strategies that have worked for them and describe "lessons learned" in their still relatively early careers. This is a very informal and interactive session so questions from attendees will be encouraged. (Read more)
