Canvassing for Nominations for the FCCMA Board of Directors

Canvassing has begun in order to fill positions on the Board of Directors. Letters were sent to eligible full members on November 22. There are two at-large director positions and the secretary/treasurer position opening in

May. All nominations must be self-nominations. To nominate oneself, a letter expressing interest should be sent to the Nominating Committee, c/o the FCCMA office, PO Box 1757, Tallahassee, FL 32302. In addition to the letter of interest (or included within it) should be a short resume paying particular attention to FCCMA participation and work experience. The self-nomination packet must be received by January 30, 2014. Below are the qualifications required for each position. \(Read more\)

FCCMA Annual Dues

The second dues notices have been sent. If you have not received your dues notice, please call Carol Russell at (850) 222-9684 or email her at crussell@frcities.com for another copy. All dues must be paid by February 1, 2014 to keep your membership current. Any members whose dues are not paid by February 1 will be deleted from the database per the By-Laws passed in May 2011 at the Annual Conference.

First Onsite Training Session for 2014

FCCMA is pleased to announce that ICMA's Director of Ethics and Advocacy, Martha Perego, has agreed to facilitate a discussion on today's application of the ICMA Code of Ethics. Much has been debated about how best to apply certain ethical provisions to a manager's daily life. Martha Perego is the noted expert on this topic given her daily engagement with managers from around the country who are challenged with questions on this topic. FCCMA members from around the state are encouraged to attend this important and certain to be engaging and informative session. \(Read more\)

Public Records Management Course

The Florida Institute of Government is pleased to provide a two-day course, Public Records Management program. This workshop will be facilitated by Steve M. Lewis with over 35 years of experience managing records in Florida.

The four modules address new technologies and management systems in the field of records management. (Read more)
