Calendars and Commitments

For those of you old enough to remember paper calendars, the first few weeks of a new year brought fresh, crisp pages just waiting to be filled, and blocked, and erased and redone...and if you had one of the daily flip calendars there was a certain satisfaction to the ripping action at the end of a tough day to bring forth the fresh page of tomorrow. Now that all my calendars are electronic, I miss the fresh appearance of a new page! As your professional development association,

Upcoming Onsite Training Sessions

CENTER FOR FLORIDA
LOCAL GOVERNMENT EXCELLENCE

Need your four-hour required ethics training?

There are two ethics sessions scheduled. The first session will be held February 27 in Palm Beach Gardens. ICMA's Director of Ethics Martha Perego will present and facilitate an interactive session on today's challenges for local government managers.

The second session will be held March 13 in Tallahassee. Special Counsel for Open Government Pat Gleason from the Attorney General's Office and General Counsel and Deputy Director Chris Anderson from the Florida Commission on Ethics will combine for an informal and informative session to specifically discuss ethical requirements, the Commission on Ethics jurisdiction when violations are reported, and the process the Commission pursues in addressing complaints. The session will also cover the Florida Sunshine law and the process involved in addressing those complaints and issues. (Read more)
