Yocelyn Galiano, ICMA-CM, District V Director

How long have you been a FCCMA member? Since June 1999.

Are you an ICMA member and if so, how long? Yes, since May 1997.

Please describe your areas of formal/advanced education. I have a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science with a minor in International Relations and a Master's in Public Administration - both from Florida International University. I am also a Certified Manager through ICMA.

What got you interested in public service? Going back to my high schools days, I always had an affinity for my government and civics classes which got me interested in the pursuit of public service as a career. I had aspirations of working for the United Nations, Congress or the Florida Legislature, but eventually chose local government because it provided me with an opportunity to work closely with the public and effectuate change in a way that was more immediate. PRESS RELEASE
For Immediate Release

The Florida City and County Management Association invites you to participate in the 2014 FCCMA Annual Conference by submitting a case study presentation application. To ensure the best possible content for attendees of the annual conference, FCCMA is instituting a case study review and selection process. Case study applications will be accepted through August 15, 2013 and will be reviewed by a committee designated by the FCCMA Annual Conference Committee who will select presenting case studies.
