Richard (Dick) Kelton, FCCMA 45-Year Member

Dick Kelton will receive his 45-year pin at the annual conference as a FCCMA member. He joined FCCMA in 1969 while working as an Administrative Assistant in Hollywood. Dick has worked in various manager positions in Florida.

He was assistant county manager for Volusia County from 1972-1975, county administrator for Pasco County from 1975-1978, assistant city manager for Miami Beach in 1978. Returning to Volusia County in 1985 he started as the Director, Capital Facilities to Assistant County Manager, then to Acting County Manager. He left Volusia County in 2000 to work as the inaugural city manager for Palm Coast, which had incorporated in 1999. He retired from Palm Coast in 2007.

Dick became a Range Rider shortly thereafter, and stays very busy helping members, as well as cities and counties. \(Read more\)
