FCCMA Webinar: Local Government Strategic Planning

Thursday, November 6, 2014, 2:00 pm - 3:00 pm

ICMA Practice Area 13: Strategic Planning

There are scores of ways to prepare for and implement successful strategic planning processes in local government. This FCCMA webinar focuses on the experience of three practitioners who have been involved in these processes in different local governments in Florida. Attendees of this webinar will learn the different approaches to strategic planning and obtain a better understanding of the barriers/constraints that should be anticipated in these differing processes. Moreover, attendees will learn how each process is jurisdiction specific and gain a better understanding of how to ensure the process results in a document that facilitates budgeting and legislative policy decisions."

Panelists:

- Connie Hoffman, Lauderdale-by-the-Sea Town Manager
- Pam Brangaccio, New Smyrna Beach City Manager
- Adam Reichbach, Margate Executive Assistant to the City Manager (Read more)

Interns for Local Government

Remember the days as a young student when you were looking for a mentor to show you how local government "REALLY" works. Here is your chance to give back!

The premier leadership fraternity at the University of Florida, Florida Blue Key and the Bob Graham Center for Public Service are organizing and sponsoring the Local Government Internship Program (LGIP) at the University of Florida. The LGIP will kick off this fall 2014 in anticipation of placing local government interns in a wide array of disciplines starting in May 2015. It is hoped the LGIP will create internships (full or part time) for the summer. (Read more)
