July 2016

Message from the Executive Director

by Casey Cook, FCCMA Executive Director

We've almost closed the book on July and boy has it been a hot one! I don't know about you, but I'm ready for the cooler weather that October and November bring. In the association world, summertime means lots of travel, either to conferences or to see members, and hopefully a vacation squeezed in somewhere. It is also a time of change.

As I'm sure most of you know, the FCCMA program year and the fiscal year are on two separate tracks. Our program year runs from annual conference to annual conference (usually June 1st - May 31st), while our fiscal year runs from October 1st - September 30th. Our program year begins in June when the new president is sworn in. Every president has their own priorities and an idea of how committees should be structured. \(Read more\)

Where Citizenship Matters Most

By Randall Reid, FCCMA Past President and ICMA Southeast Regional Director

The following is the text of an address given on June 3, 2016 at the 10th annual FCCMA Inspirational Breakfast during the 2016 FCCMA Conference in Orlando, Florida. The speaker at the sold out event was Randall Reid, Past President of FCCMA and presently Southeast Regional Director for ICMA.

Colleagues,

Good morning. It is a pleasure to be here this morning; to be among so many friends and in a community of public servants gathering in recognition and celebration of the importance of faith in our profession. I am particularly pleased to see Debbie Roberto here this morning. I am honored to speak again at this breakfast as I have done on occasions since the first time I spoke in 2005. That was when several of us, including Mike Roberto sought with support of FCCMA staff to have a time together at each conference to speak of the importance of the faith and to inspire us to persevere in the difficult work we do.
