With the 2017 hurricane season past, local governments are now assessing their priorities for the 2018 season. This FCCMA training session brings city, county, state, and nonprofit officials together to discuss lessons learned from the 2017 season and identify the resources available to prepare for next season. Program attendees will hear differing perspectives on this subject and will be given an opportunity to engage all presenters throughout this presentation. This is a wonderful opportunity for managers and their key personnel to come to this session as a team to share their challenges and successes, and learn from the panel and the other attendees.

Presenters:

- Charlie Frank, Volunteer Fire Coordinator; State of Florida
- Greg Strader, Executive Director, Be Ready Alliance Coordinating for Emergencies (BRACE)
- Randy McDaniel, Emergency Management Division Chief, Okaloosa County
- Ken Perkins, Fire Chief and Emergency Management Coordinator, Fort Walton Beach

The cost for the training is $74 per person and $40 for students if you pay by check. Those who register and pay online will receive $25 off the registration fee ($49 per person/$15 per student). Lunch is included. The deadline for registration is Friday, January 5th. No refunds will be given after the deadline.

If paying by check, complete the registration form and mail to: FCCMA, P.O. Box 1757, Tallahassee, FL 32302.
