

FCCMA & SGR

SUPPORT MANAGERS-IN-TRANSITION

Florida City and County Management Association (FCCMA) and Strategic Government Resources (SGR) have joined forces to support Managers-in-Transition.

SGR helps local governments to recruit, assess, and develop, innovative, collaborative, and authentic leaders. You can find out more about them at www.GovernmentResource.com.

As a Manager-in-Transition (MIT) and a member of FCCMA, you will have FREE access to all of the following SGR services to assist you in your personal career development and, of course, to guide you on your way to finding that perfect fit.

Access to SGR's job board, which reaches over 23,000 job seekers each month and typically contains about 1,200 local government job postings. As an MIT, you will receive a complimentary subscription providing a daily email notice of up to three particular categories of new job opportunities that have been posted in the last 24 hours!

Access to SGR's online learning management system (LMS) for local governments, which currently includes 70 courses, with new courses being developed every six weeks!

One-year subscription to online executive book briefings on leading edge business books.

Registration to any of SGR's specialty webinars on topics of interest to local government officials.

IOPT assessment with a personal phone counseling session regarding the implications of the assessment to assist members in the growth and development of leadership skills.

Registration to any SGR, live class or training event across the nation.

Registration to the Annual SGR Conference.

To take advantage of these free services please contact SGR's Regional Director, Douglas Thomas at DouglasThomas@GovernmentResource.com or by phone at (863) 860-9314.

