

THE 2024 FLORIDA CITY AND COUNTY MANAGEMENT ASSOCIATION (FCCMA) SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Are you currently earning a degree in public administration and committed to pursuing a career in local government management?

Check out these exclusive scholarship opportunities.

The FCCMA is committed to supporting students pursuing education and careers in Public Administration. We offer up to four academic-based scholarships: the B. Harold Farmer Scholarship ($5,000), the Raymond C. Sittig Scholarship ($5,000) and two Aspiring Professional Manager Scholarships ($2,500 each). Recipients are chosen based on students' ability to demonstrate their understanding and support of local government management and the principles on which each of these scholarships were founded.

BACKGROUND

Initiated in 1992, the B. Harold Farmer Scholarship is given in honor and memory of B. Harold Farmer, an FCCMA past president, who served as a mentor for many Florida city and county managers. Mr. Farmer served as a city manager for nearly 25 years and was instrumental to the creation of Florida's Alliance for Innovation. This scholarship honors Mr. Farmer's commitment to professional local government management and the use of innovation to deliver services to Florida residents.

The Raymond C. Sittig Scholarship, initiated in 2014, is given in honor and memory of Raymond C. Sittig, longtime executive director of the Florida League of Cities (FLC) and champion of Home Rule powers. Ray came to Florida to become a city manager, but instead of working for one city, he was a champion for all cities. He served as the FLC executive director for 25 years. In 1978, Ray agreed to be the FCCMA's administrator out of respect for the profession and his desire to build a strong relationship between the FCCMA and the FLC.

Initiated in 2018, the Aspiring Professional Manager Scholarships are given to help individual students with a strong commitment to pursuing a career in local government management offset educational expenses.

THE AWARD

Recipients of the Aspiring Professional Manager Scholarships will each receive a $2,500 scholarship; recipients of the B. Harold Farmer and Raymond C. Sittig Scholarships will each receive $5,000. All scholarship recipients will receive expenses up to $300 to the FCCMA Annual Conference May 29 – June 1, 2024, where they will be recognized for their achievements and given the opportunity to network with 200+ professional managers from across the state. The scholarships also include a one-year complimentary membership to the FCCMA and the International City/County Management Association (ICMA).

ELIGIBILITY

Students must be enrolled during the summer or fall of 2024 and be pursuing a bachelor's, master's or doctorate degree in an accredited program that has been established that is administered through a campus in Florida with the intent of becoming a city or county manager. Students may be enrolled in an online accredited program as long as they live in Florida and/or work for a Florida city or county government. Qualifying students must submit a completed application, official transcripts, resume and two letters of recommendation by February 5, 2024, at 5:00 p.m. to be considered for these awards.

Official Transcripts must be received from the university. Universities can email official transcripts to fccma@flcities.com or mail them to FCCMA at P.O. Box 1757, Tallahassee, FL, 32302-1757.
